

Not by the Wisdom of This World

JERUSALEM

D.L.M.

Sir C. H. H. Parry, 1848-1918
arr. Christopher Hoyt, 2012

1 Not by the wis - dom of this 2 Not in the first - born nor the 3 From suck - ling lips or - dain thy 4 Un - to the One whose al - tar world, Not by the war - rior's clash - ing arms, Not by the great ones of the fair, Not in the an - gels' le - gion ranks, Not in the temp - est nor the strength, Thy beau - ty from de - spis - ed things, Thy pow'r from mar - tyr and from coal Made sin - ful lips of proph - et pure, Un - to the One who to the earth Our heav'n - ly Fa - ther's king - dom comes, But by the fool - ish - ness of flame Which rav - aged Hor - eb's rug - ged flanks, But in the still, small voice of maid, Thy maj - es - ty from in - fant kings; Thy brook yield up to shep - herd blind, the lep - er, and the lame brought cure, Un - to the One whose wind and

Not by the wisdom of this world

God, by weak ones who un - ceas - ing pray, "Thine is the pow'r," their con - stant calm, In Ja - cob's best - ed wres - tling mate, In Je - sus Christ the cru - ci - youths the dread Go - li - ath - slay - ing stones, That we the poor, the base, the fire on frail a - pos - tles was out - poured, Un - to the One in Three be

1. 4.
 creed, Their hymn "Non no - bis, Do - mi - ne."
 fied The pow'r of God has been dis - played.
 weak, May glo - ry in the Lord a - lone.
 praise As then, as now, as ev - er - - - - - more.

1. 4.

Christopher Hoyt (2010)